

BEYOND THE VEIL

Dark deeds in Thistledale...

Writer & Lyricist: Deborah McAndrew Composer: Conrad Nelson Musical Director: Rebekah Hughes Director: Adam Sunderland

DCI Mark Starkey thinks he's got a quiet patch in sleepy Thistledale, but all that is about to change dramatically when there's a sudden, unnatural death on the local allotment.

The grisly discovery down by the beehives is only the beginning for Detective Starkey. To unmask the murderer he must first uncover an altogether less savoury side of life in Thistledale; bitter grudges, thwarted passions and murky pasts...

And then there are the bees...

The life of the honeybee might be described as one of great sweetness and harmony, punctuated by sudden, desperate, acts of violence. The same could be said for Thistledale.

Detective Starkey soon realises that the more he knows about bees, the closer he gets to the killer!

The precious gift of live theatre, with plays that are brilliant, quaffable fun; yet yield deeply coolcanals

Hilarious and enjoyable

DON'T SHOOT 'THE MESSENCED!

Adventures in the post

Writer: Maeve Larkin Director: Marianne McNamara Composer & Musical Director: Rebekah Hughes

When a gun toting hoodlum holds up a village post office, the Postmasters want justice... of the restorative kind... by any means necessary.

But can a comical journey through five centuries of postal history rehabilitate the rascally rogue?

And what of the Postmasters' own motives

– a noble act of public service or the desperation of the doomed?

Will they get closure or just get closed?

A story of deliveries and deliverance.

tour 2013

We've had great fun putting together this year's productions...

'Don't Shoot the Messenger!' has induced in us a passion for admiring post boxes and stamps, whilst 'Beyond the Veil' has not only educated us about the desperate plight that our bees are up against and underlined how important they are, but also the way in which they live and work has truly amazed us.

On the back of our hugely successful 2012 season we have engaged the same artistic team and their energy and excitement is infectious. We've had more venues asking to host a Mikron show than we have nights available. We've done our best to squeeze you all in and we're sorry to those we didn't manage to include. All we can suggest is getting in touch very early about 2014 and we'll see what we can do!

Huge thanks to Arts Council England and The Leche Trust for funding the research and development and writing for our 2013 shows. We believe that the extra time and care that this allows us to dedicate to the shows has had a direct impact on their quality and our audience members seem to think so too.

We're thrilled to report that the wonderful Esmée Fairbairn Foundation are just as excited as us about our future. They have funded some of our core costs until the end of our 2014 season. This is the first time in a number of years that we have known that we can afford to exist beyond one season.

This has given us a shot of confidence and, more importantly, allowed us the time to take stock and make long term plans. In these terrifyingly austere times we are well aware of the number of wonderful companies that haven't been as lucky as us and we are determined not to rest on our laurels!

Our thanks to the Canal & River Trust and all the staff at Standedge Tunnel Visitor Centre for making us so welcome during our rehearsal periods. The Thomas Bourne Room is such an inspiring place to work. We definitely recommend a visit.

> If you received this leaflet by post, have we got your correct details?

If not, let us know by post or email admin@mikron.org.uk and we'll update our records.

If you're at a waterside venue do have a look at our beautiful narrowboat, Tyseley. She is the cast's home and mode of transport during the summer months as we tour the inland waterways. Tyseley is 77 years old this year, and is a star in her own right. Thanks to the Foyle Foundation we've been able to give her some TLC and yet again she's doing us proud. If you'd like to know more about Tyseley you'll be pleased to hear that we've dedicated a whole page to her on our website.
